St. Marks United Methodist Church, 800 S. Main St., Findlay, Ohio

Speaker Bio: Jami Nathan is the All-In Community Training and Ministries Coordinator for the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church. In the past, she worked at the Correction Center of Northwest Ohio as the Lead Teacher in the Education Department helping offenders earn their GEDs, learn job employability skills and the importance of personal finances. Jami has six years of paid adult education experience and 20+ years of volunteer adult education work.

Jami is a trained Stephen Minister and Stephen Leader. She co-founded the Greater Cincinnati Stephen Ministry Network (GCSMN). She has helped to lead workshops to train Good Samaritans, a program through All In Community for Stephen Ministers and Lay Servant Ministers that enhances their care ministry to help those who have been victims of crimes and others that have been affected by the criminal justice system. Jami is also a certified Healing Communities Trainer and Qualified Administrator for the Intercultural Development Inventory. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology and Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies from the University of Cincinnati.
