

TALKING TOOL FOR GRACE ZONE CONVERSATION

In order to maintain our “Grace Zone” for today’s discussion, we request that you ask only clarifying questions in your search for deeper understanding and meaning. Use these simple guidelines when forming your questions for our panelists.

CLARIFYING QUESTIONS BEGIN WITH

“Help me understand...”

“Would you please say more about...”

CLARIFYING QUESTIONS DO NOT

BEGIN WITH

“I think...” “I believe...” “I know...”

POEM AND PRAYER

LET LOVE BE MESSY

Love isn't just one thing;
 It's fierce and soft,
 Intimate and collective,
 Wild and sincere and deliberate
 And just.
 Love can be more chaos than order.
 Love can be tension.

Love can be conflict.
 It's complicated.
 It's multifaceted.
 Love is hard work and so easy.
 Love always leads to Life.
 Love is an ever-unfolding thing.
 We are all still figuring out.
 Let Love be messy.

SHOW UP FOR EACH OTHER. God, help us to recognize your aching heart, your weary soul, and your suffering body in the lives of those around us who are attacked, dismissed, criminalized, or patronized. As we offer our resources and the service of our lives to you, guide us in the work of showing up with and for all your people. Amen.
